Whew! The End

Class History

Fifty seven of us assembled in various little groups in front of W H S on September 4, 1951. Later as we met in the school auditorium, the youngest members of the student body, we were conscious of the stares of the upperclassmen, and were even more aware of the 'butterflies' in our stomachs. Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Bloodsworth were our class sponsors that year. In February we presented our first school assembly program entitled, "We Hold These Truths" which was most successful. How quickly that year passed!

September 1952 found us back in school with Miss Warren and Mrs. Scott as our sponsors. Down in history we went—the first Eighth Grade to hold a dance. We called it "May Fiesta." In April 1953, we traveled to St. Mary's Jr. College to witness the pageant, "The Birth of Tolerance."

Two new teachers were our sponsors in the Ninth Grade—Mrs. Chamberlin and Mr. Evans. During that year, outstanding, was the trip to Washington, D C., our Valentine Dance, "Heart of My Heart," and our assembly program, a minstrel. At a Camp Meeting."

Our Sophomore Year began with a dance, "The Autumn Hop." In late winter of that year we gave the play, "The Liberty Tree." That year, too, most of us were sixteen and we got our driving licenses!

Almost, but not quite, JUNIORS' Christy was our President, with Bobby Fitzgerald, Barbara Matthews, and Walton Alder as the other class officers. Important events of this year were our dance, "Junior Jaunt," and our trip to Gettysburg. Then,—THE PROM! Held on May 11th it was one of the prettiest ever given! It was called "Bal Parisienne," and the decorations represented a sidewalk cafe in Paris. Surely, THAT was a night to remember! Mr. Gaddis and Mrs. Johnson were our sponsors that year.

SENIORS' Our officers were Gary Bounds, President, Richard Smith, Vice President, Gloria Bowman, Secretary, and Eleanor White, Treasurer. Christy was selected Queen of the Livestock Show. Bobby Fitzgerald was Student Council President. Walton and Christy organized the Yearbook Staff and we were on our way. Class rings arrived on October 28th. The final dance to be given by our class, entitled "Dream Whirl," was one of our most successful. "The Night Before Christmas" was the theme of our Christmas formal. On January 23rd we journeyed to Annapolis to see our Legislature in action. Days and weeks seemed to fly by. May had come, and with it the Junior Senior Prom! Caps and Gowns' Commencement! With diplomas in our hands, we left the platform as Graduates of Washington High School—our hearts full of shared experiences and memories to be cherished always.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of Washington High School, Princess Anne Md., being of sound mind and body and desiring to make disposition of our property and affairs do publish this our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave our best regards and the memory of us.

To Mr. Vaughan we leave a '57 Jaguar so that he may have prompt attendance at the fires.

To the individual members of the Jr. Class we leave:

Richard Smith's ability to "get away with murder" to Johnny Barnes.

Samueline Bounds' short-cut to Deal Island to Julia Bull.

Joe Brown's red hair to Richard Adams.

Doris Evans' athletic abilities to Doris Richardson.

Gary Bounds' parliamentary procedure to Wayne Tull.

Eleanor Catlin's French pronunciation to Dickie Wheatley.

Butch Dreyer's shower-singing talent to Phillip Benson and Benny Kelly.

Barbara Whitney's and Louise Messick's ability to combine two careers to Becky Hurley.

Langford Anderson's big beef to Jimmy Byrd.

Christy Widdowson's attendance at school, but necessity of missing classes to Linda Kiggin.

Dale Eby's sideburns to Gordon West.

Shirley Bloodsworth's quiet ways to Frances Griffin and Nancy Gibbon.

Leon Griffin's black, wavy hair to Carl Ashley, James Doyle and Preston Parks.

Barbara Kelly's smile to Evelyn Long.

Warren Bloodsworth's basketball skill to Buster Bozman and Cradoc Milden.

Gloria Bowman's accent to Mary E. Arnold.

Walton Alder's yearbook headaches to Billy Foxwell.

Nancy Donohoe's giggling habits to Ginger Long.

Franklin Duncan's business interest in The Midnight Supply Co. to Robert Taylor.

Marjorie Lee's blond curls to Ann Parkinson.

Rolan Waters' lack of height to Weldon Collins and Donald Hall.

Henrietta Morris' extensive wardrobe to Irene Townsend.

Mickey Wigglesworth's giant bottle of Vitalis to Price Gunter.

Eleanor White's missionary zeal to Verna Dryden.

Bobby Fitzgerald's love for the Council to Allen Muir.

Anne Muir's yearbook quotation to Joan Powell.

Tommy Lewis' impersonations to Ronnie Noble.

Virginia Mariner's quiet ways to Janice Camp.

Winfred Ashley's love to Ginger Matthews.

Durlene Watt's extra set of car keys and Susan Barnes' Deal Island love to Alice Miller.

Leona Gilliam's beloved car and underclassman to Allen Camp and Wallace Peterman, respectively.

Mary Long's flirtatious ways to Darla Layfield.

Barbara Pusey's diets to Alice Mae Kohlheim.

Betsy Anderson's energy to Mary Ann Campbell.

Reed Heath's dry wit and love for Hlys to Bobby Board and Bobby Pulliam, respectively.

Helen Jackson's golden locks to June Butler.

Ellen French's height to Anne Bloodsworth.

Jeanie Hall's sisterly love to Ann Hall.

Audrey Bedsworth's ability to express herself to Bonnie Evans.

Signed, this 7th day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty seven
